SYNOPSIS

This Act creates a Deputy Secretary position within the Department of Services for Children, Youth, and Their Families ("Department") and exempts the position from the Merit System under Chapter 59 of Title 29. The Secretary of the Department may establish the powers, duties, and functions of the Deputy Secretary.

This Act removes the limit on qualified persons the Secretary of the Department may appoint as special investigators for the Department.

Lastly, this Act makes technical corrections to conform existing law to the standards of the Delaware Legislative Drafting Manual.
